WHAT IS IT?
The University of California provides a non-resident supplemental tuition exemption, effective July 1, 2015 associated with the new federal law, Section 702 of HR 3230 (Public Law 113-146), The Veterans Access, Choice and Accountability Act (VACAA). This non-resident supplemental tuition exemption aids those who would otherwise be subject to paying out-of-state tuition.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?
Non-resident veterans or their non-resident dependents are eligible for the exemption if they can document that they meet BOTH of the following two requirements:

❖ The student will be receiving education benefits under either Chapter 30 (Montgomery) or Chapter 33 (Post 9/11) GI Bill ® programs after June 30, 2015 while enrolled at UC.

AND

❖ The student (or their military sponsor) separated from service in the active military within 36 months of enrolling in UC, after June 30, 2015.

OR

❖ The student (or their military sponsor) is currently serving on active duty. (effective July 2017)
